Fiduciary out: Ability to walk away from the deal if it no longer fits with government's privatization plan and bondholders don't get the benefit of the 2019 / lien validation. As I said, complete non-starter. Not the FOMB's position and likely more Nancy trying to create litigation.

Thanks. Fiduciary out?

Unfortunately not a lot to report. Nancy Mitchell still trying to argue for a fiduciary out, which is a non-starter for both creditors and the FOMB. Trying to figure out if this is a Christian or Nancy issue. Also sent over a concept on demand protections tied to GNP and Employment, which doesn't seem to work for them. As a result, there is nothing to report on scheduling a meeting.
